A screenshot of the 'Create your Google Account' form. The form is titled 'Create your Google Account to continue to Gmail'. It contains several input fields: 'First name' with the value 'John', 'Last name' with the value 'Smith', 'Username' with the value 'Bigbird3877@gmail.com', 'Password', and 'Confirm'. Below the password fields, there is a note: 'Use 8 or more characters with a mix of letters, numbers & symbols'. To the right of the form is a graphic of a blue shield with a white person icon and a laptop with three notification icons. Below the graphic is the text 'One account. All of Google working for you.' At the bottom of the form are two buttons: 'Sign in instead' and a blue 'Next' button. The Windows taskbar is visible at the bottom.

- 5) It will then ask you for an optional phone number or email address for security reasons. After you enter your date of birth and gender you will click the blue box that says “Next”

- 6) Now you will scroll through their Privacy and Terms and click the blue box that says “I Agree”.

7) And now you have an active email! You can use the Gmail website to check it on any computer or phone that has access to the internet or download the Gmail app directly to any phone or tablet for easier access.
